New hirings to grow 7.1% till March 2025: TeamLease

STAFFING FIRM TEAMLEASE Services expects a growth of 7.1% in new employment for October 2024-March 2025. hinting at a possible pick-up in hiring. This is higher than 6.33% growth witnessed during April 2024-September

The uptick represents the collective outlook of 59% of employers planning to expand workforce while 22% plan to maintain their current staffing levels over the next five months.

The growth will likely be driven by sectors such as logistics, EV & EV infrastructure, agriculture & agrochemicals, and ecommerce which are heavily investing in infrastructural and technological advancements. Logistics, for example, stood out with a 14.2% net employment change as 69% of companies in the sector look to increase headcount till March 2025.

As per the report, EV and EV infrastructure (12.1%), agriculture and agrochemicals (10.5%) and e-commerce & tech startups (8.9%) could see robust recruiting. Startups, particularly, are likely to capitalise on AI-enabled customer insights, Web 3.0 applications and seasonal demand from the festive period.

The report highlights that there's a geographical shift taking place in the job market. For instance, cities like Coimbatore (24.6%) and Gurgaon (22.6%) are becoming job hubs, representing a decentralisation of employment opportunities beyond traditional metros.

"While Bengaluru (53.1%), Mumbai (50.2%), and Hyderabad (48.2%) remain central employment anchors with high workforce demand, the demand in cities like Coimbatore, Gurgaon, Jaipur, Lucknow, and Nagpur signals a broader spread of job growth across India – reinforcing the appeal of smaller cities as viable alternatives for job seekers and companies alike," the report added.

IIM AHMEDABAD HAS completed the summer placement for its flagship Postgraduate Programme (PGP) with 51 new firms in the list of recruiters for the Class of 2026. Atotal of 159 companies participated in the programme to recruit students across three different clusters.

147 roles across multiple domains. IIM-A stated that there is a gradual rise in recruiting firms and roles for students despite turbulent market conditions as it rose to 51 from last year's 12.

Prof. Viswanath Pingali, chairperson of Placements at IIM Ahmedabad, said, "This year, we completed the summer placement process in hybrid mode. Once again, we saw an increase in the participation of firms and the variety of job roles as compared to the previous years." Amongst the 394 students placed, 38% (150) were hired by consulting firms such as Accenture Strategy, McKinsey & Company, PwC and KPMG, among others. Following closely was the banking, financial services and insurance (BFSI) domain, recruiting 22% (87 students) of the student.

Given the increasing prominence of technology across various professions, new-age firms such as Zaggle, Trampoline Store and Progcap recruited students for opportunities in the financial technology space.

Wonder Down Under: India outplay Australia at Perth

Defeat hosts by 295 runs in first Test after getting out for 150 on Day 1

SRIRAM VEERA Perth, November 25

ON THE EVE of the seriesopener in Perth, just before the Border-Gavaskar trophy unveiling, Jasprit Bumrah was excitedly chatting about his son with Australian captain Pat Cummins. He would return to his kid at the end of a sensational come-frombehind win. "My young son was in the stands. He was also there at the T20 World Cup win. He won't know anything now, but I now have stories to tell him when he grows up; how he was there during special Indian wins."

For a particular generation of older fans, to experience India playing cricket in Australia in the last decade has been a sweet erasure of a torrid past.

In 2014, they stood up to Australia; in 2018, they knocked down Australia; in 2021, they seemed on the mat, but conjured a triumph for a lifetime.

This 2024 series started like a bad dream, a whitewash at home, absences of key players, doubts about the new management's working relationship with players. On the first day in Perth India crashed and burned — 150 all out in four hours on a bright sunny Australian day.

Yet, within that day, the turnaround had begun, and that was not just consolidated over the next three days but an utter domination was achieved as India wrapped up the first Test in Perth in some style: a 295run win, India's biggest in terms of runs in Australia.

Bumrah would nail down the turning point moment as the one that came after the lowest moment in the Test. "The most positive thing was when we were out for 150. There was no one in the dressing room who was down. They believed that if we could get out like that, we could do the same to them. My only message to the team was not to get too desperate as sometimes bowling teams can do that after getting bowled out cheaply. I told them there was enough on apply the final seal of victory. It's one thing to hang in Harshit Rana, who had there, slowly claw back, grit sparkled in the first innings, out a bruising fight-back too, produced a crafty slower after being down by tea on ball to castle the stumps of opening day, but India Alex Carey to trigger celebradecided against that old tions. By the time stand-in romantic sporting cliche; captain Bumrah could get to instead, they chose to boss the stumps at the nonand own Australia. Time will tell how the rest of the series striker's end, KL Rahul, whose partnership with Yashasvi goes but this performance has now cancelled out all pre-Jaiswal in the second innings series fears of a one-sided had set up a huge target, had plucked out two stumps, and contest.

Josh Hazlewood had given up the ghost on the third evening itself when instead of any brave talk of fightback, he said he hoped a couple of batsmen would get to 80 or 100, and tire down the Indian bowlers a bit. One of those batsmen, and a very important one for Australia if they are to bounce back in the series, was Steve Smith. Especially after Usman Khawaja went early, trying to pull a Mohammed Siraj short delivery from outside off, top-edging it to Rishabh Pant.

Smith was sorted out by Bumrah for a first-ball ducl in the first innings when he had pressed back far too early, and couldn't get his wrists to effect the jail-break for him. On Monday, on a track that was playing up-and-down, his task was that much more arduous. He did try gamely, trying to play straight. As his innings progressed though, he began to get stuck at the crease, and his hands were doing all the contortions to keep him out there. But then came a length ball from Mohammad Siraj in the offstump channel and Smith, not only stuck at crease but on his toes almost jammed Head did what he usually does to India: slash, carve, smash, swat. And Bumrah brought himself back to end his stay with a straightener outside off that caught the outside edge of an attempted forcing punch shot and flew through to Rishabh Pant. With it, the Australian fight faded out of the arena rather quickly but not before Dhruv Jurel produced the catch of the game, plucking one out of thin air at short-leg to get rid of Mitch Starc.

bat to snick it behind.

A little later, when the victory was sealed, a digital advertisement flashed around on the first tier of the stadium: "Do Great Things". They could have added

"like India" – to capture some ground reality.
